Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Ecclesiasticus 10: 12-18

The beginning of human pride is to forsake the Lord;
the heart has withdrawn from its Maker.
For the beginning of pride is sin,
and the one who clings to it pours out abominations.
Therefore the Lord brings upon them unheard-of calamities,
and destroys them completely.
The Lord overthrows the thrones of rulers,
and enthrones the lowly in their place.
The Lord plucks up the roots of the nations,
and plants the humble in their place.
The Lord lays waste the lands of the nations,
and destroys them to the foundations of the earth.
He removes some of them and

destroys them,
and erases the memory of them from the earth.
Pride was not created for human beings,
or violent anger for those born of women.

A reading from the Gospel of Luke 14: 1, 7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

Mid-Week Evening Eucharist and Thankyou

On Wednesday 7th September at 7pm, (that's easy to remember!) there will be an evening Eucharist (mostly said service with hymns). This has been requested by Mothers' Union Branches in the West and South, but is open to everyone-and not only Mothers. All are welcome and encouraged to attend, and to share in Refreshments afterwards.

You can hear a little of what MU are up to, there is some optional Fund Raising activity and a Card/Gift stall. And Thank You very much to all who organised, attended and contributed so generously to the lovely MU Lunch last week. £286 was raised for MU work at the Cathedral and overseas. For more info ask Verger Sue (Peel Branch Leader) or Revd Ruth (453008).

Accommodation?

We are tentatively enquiring about anyone who has a couple of spare rooms, and/or a reasonably priced flat or house which they might consider for rental in Peel. Please initially speak with one of the Cathedral Staff Team if this might be you and you would like to know more. Thank you. Revd Ruth.

Food

Thank you for all your kind contributions to the Cathedral Food Boxes. They are much appreciated. As you will see, the boxes are low in stock again and any ongoing help would be great- especially things like tinned meat/vegetables/fruit/custard.

We have a small supply of Word for Today daily notes, free of charge. If you would like to try these, please take a copy, or for a friend who may appreciate them. On the Table at the back of Cathedral.
