Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition please ask the welcomers.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar.

Distribution of Communion: Congregants are advised to receive the host first from the President and then move to receive the chalice. The Welcomers will bring people up section by section and if you wish to stay seated in your place, we will come to you at the end of communion. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book.

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know. Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet facilities are through the Servedy.

Collect

Almighty God, who in the passion of your blessed Son made an instrument of painful death to be for us the means of life and peace: grant us so to glory in the cross of Christ that we may gladly suffer for his sake; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion

Faithful God, whose Son bore our sins in His Body on the tree and gave us this sacrament to show forth his death until he comes; give us grace to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our hope, who reigns as Lord, now and for ever. Amen

The first reading from Philippians 2: 6 – 11.

who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

A reading from the Gospel of John 3: 13 – 17.

No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man.¹ And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.¹

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

‘Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him’.

Saturday 21st September. Talk about establishing healing hubs on the Isle of Man 9:30 am in St John's Mill. Rev. Wes Sutton who works with Acorn Christian Healing. Acorn offers free training in how to pray for healing, and in Christian listening. Wes is engaged in setting up local 'healing hubs' throughout the country – a time and a place where people can come for ministry and prayer. This is usually interdenominational and can use any suitable place. It is mainly a form of outreach – prayer offered to people who don't attend a church., all are welcome to attend – this is not just for clergy or limited to Anglicans It is for anyone who is interested in praying for healing. Information about Acorn can be found at: <https://acornchristian.org>

9th – 22nd Sept : Fairtrade Fortnight

Celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Fairtrade Foundation in the UK. The Isle of Man has a small but active Fairtrade Group (chaired by the One World Centre) If you're interested in joining the group and keeping up to date with all the latest Fairtrade activity both on and off the Island, please email info@owciom.org

Wednesday 2nd October. Transitions: a quiet morning for autumn at Thie dy Vea with Rev Sue Watterson 10.00 a.m. – 12.30 p.m. with lunch option. In our lives, we may go through a period of 'Autumn', and experience a time of transition when something ends or closes, and a new opportunity arises. What does the season hold for us this year? Refreshments will be served from 9.30 a.m. onwards. The session will finish at 12.30 p.m. with an opportunity to stay on for a soup and cake lunch. Cost: suggested donation of £10, or £20 if staying for lunch. To book please contact : Thie dy Vea : welcome@retreathouse.im

Chairs

Some large events are about to take place in the Cathedral and we are trying to raise fund for new chairs.

Would you help us by supplying the cost of a chair for a guest?

The current cost of a chair without arms (excluding delivery costs) is £259.50.

- A single chair £311.35
- 10 armchairs and a dolly £5,000
- a stack of 40 chairs and a dolly £13,000

General Car Parking

The Cathedral Car park is now once again available for vehicles. The flower tubs alongside the pavement are spaced at car parking intervals, so drive between them. (They are slightly more generous than traditional car parking). The Flower tubs are to remind people not to allow their vehicles to overhang the pavement, which then prevents people with mobility issues accessing the Corrin Hall or Cathedral.

Disabled Car Parking

Parking in the area of the War Memorial, accessed by the Atholl Street Gates, is STRICTLY for 'service vehicles' and those with disability permits. The Cathedral will provide permits for those requiring them.
