Post Communion

Father of light, in whom is no change or shadow of turning, you give us every good and perfect gift and have brought us to birth by your word of truth: may we be a living sign of that kingdom where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Job 19: 23-27a

'O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever!

For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that at the last he will stand upon
the earth;
and after my skin has been thus destroyed,

then in my flesh I shall see God,
whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.

My heart faints within me!

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew 19: 16-30

Then someone came to him and said, 'Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?' And he said to him, 'Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments.' He said to him, 'Which ones?' And Jesus said, 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honour your father and mother; also, You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' The young man said to him, 'I have kept all these; what do I still lack?' Jesus said to him, 'If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When the young man heard this word, he went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astounded and said, 'Then who can be saved?' But Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but for God all things are possible.' Then Peter said in reply, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?' Jesus said to them, 'Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man is seated on the throne of his glory, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Cathedral Food Bank Boxes

They are incredibly low at the moment. Items like tinned vegetables and fruit, custard, rice pudding, cereals, tea bags, any type of tinned meats and fish like tuna and sardines. Any items would be gratefully received and to thank everyone for their donations. Thank you, Dianne.

Cathedral developments

The Dean is proposing to hold meetings to let everyone know about planned Cathedral closure for development, future plans and finance generally. These meetings will give you the chance to raise/ask questions and to be made aware of the implications of the proposals.

The meetings will be held at the Deanery:

Tuesday 8th November at 7pm

Wednesday 9th November at 2pm

Similar meetings were held pre-covid, and we do hope that once again you will take the opportunity to discuss in small groups the redevelopment of the Cathedral.

Please let Helen know if you are able to attend on either of these occasions.

I am pleased to announce the creation of the We Care campaign by the Environment Action Group.

It aims to support the government's vision in the Climate Change Plan while urging more action more quickly.

It is a fun set of resources that can be used in your own way with individuals and groups, creating work that can be shared with friends, family and people's MHK.

Find all this on our new website www.eag.im that also has information about carbon net zero.
