Collect

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Exodus 23: 10-11

For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield; but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the wild animals may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard.

A reading from the Gospel of Luke 17: 11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked,

'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Offertory Hymn:

Cauliflowers fluffy and cabbages
green,
Strawberries sweeter than any I've seen.
Beetroot purple and onions white,
All grow steadily day and night.

The apples are ripe, and the plums are red, The broadbeans are sleeping in the blanket bed.

Blackberries are juicy and rhubarb
sour,
Marrows fatt'ning, hour by hour.
Gooseberries hairy and lettuces fat,
Radishes round and runner beans flat.

*The apples are ripe, and the plums are red, The broadbeans are sleeping in
the blanket bed.*

Orangey carrots and turnips cream, Reddening tomatoes that used to be green.
Brown potatoes in little heaps,
Down in the darkness where the celery sleeps.

*The apples are ripe, and the plums are red, The broadbeans are sleeping in
the blanket bed*
