CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition, they are available at the back of the Cathedral.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know.

Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to please ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Prayer Two people will be available in the south transept to pray with anyone who would like private prayer for themselves or friends after the service.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet and baby changing facilities are located through the door in the Servedy.

Children's activities are available throughout the service at the back.

Collect

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Post Communion

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and forever. Amen.

A reading from Genesis 28: 10-19a

Jacob left Beer-sheba and went towards Haran. He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place. And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And the LORD stood beside him and said, 'I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring; and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring. Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.' Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, 'Surely the LORD is in this place—and I did not know it!' And he was afraid, and said, 'How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.'

So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. He called that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at the first.

A reading from the Gospel of Matt 13: 24-30, 36-43

He put before them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn." '

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Caterpillar Club

The Caterpillar club meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month at 10.00am.

The Cathedral Choir are now on their summer break. The Cathedral Choristers are raft-building this afternoon at Mooragh Park; and on Wednesday, members of Schola travel with Dr Litman for a Thursday-Sunday residency, singing the services at Blackburn Cathedral.

Contemporary Service

We'd be very grateful for any volunteers to help serve tables and welcome visitors. Please contact Pedro on 434212 or WhatsApp at 07587 481428 if you'd like to know more —many thanks to everyone supporting our new service.

Jam for sale this week in the Cathedral—all proceeds to Cathedral projects Blackcurrant, Gooseberry, Rhubarb & Strawberry. If anyone has any clean empty jam jars with lids I would be very grateful for them. Val Garrett

The Connect group will meet at the Deanery at 7pm. on Wednesday, 26th July, for a Bible study. All welcome. Please bring Bibles. We will not meet in August but plan to have a social evening in September when we can discuss our programme for the autumn.

Who will be our next Bishop?

Come and have your say.....

The Archbishop's Appointments Secretary, Stephen Knott will be visiting the island as part of the consultation process as we prepare to search for a new Bishop following Bishop Peter's retirement in the Autumn.

On Monday 24th July we will be holding two public meetings to which everyone is invited. This will be your opportunity to share your thoughts about our island, our diocese and the qualities you see as essential in a new Bishop as we meet the challenges of ministry and mission going forward.

The Public meetings will be on 24th July

3.15pm - 4.15pm at Kirk Michael

6pm - 7pm at the Abbey Church Hall, Ballasalla.

Light refreshments will be available.

Many thanks

The Venerable Irene Cowell
Archdeacon of Man
