CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition, they are available at the back of the Cathedral.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know.

Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to please ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Prayer Two people will be available in the south transept to pray with anyone who would like private prayer for themselves or friends after the service.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet and baby changing facilities are located through the door in the Servedy.

Children's activities are available throughout the service at the back.

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Genesis

22 :1-14

After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, 'Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt-offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt-offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.' Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, 'Father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?' Abraham said, 'God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt-offering, my son.' So the two of them walked on together.

When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham!' And he said, 'Here I am.' He said, 'Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.' And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt-offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place 'The LORD will provide'; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.'

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew 10: 40-end

'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

Contemporary Services

We need volunteers to serve tables and welcome visitors. Contact Pedro on 434212 or WhatsApp at 07587 481428.

TODAY: Summer Anniversary Concert Service on at Dalby starting at 6.30pm.

An open invitation to come and join us as we celebrate our 184th Anniversary at Dalby Church with a Concert Service led by the amazing choir "Manx Voices" who will perform 9 pieces of choral music and will lead the community hymn singing. The concert service will be followed by a Dalby tea in the schoolrooms. Everyone welcome.

The next ISN meeting will be held on Saturday 8 July when the speaker will be Revd Andrew Walker, Founder-Director of the London Centre for Spirituality. His theme will be "Beginning the song exactly where you are". Venue: St John's Mill, 9.30am - 12.15pm. Donations welcome.

"Journeying to Joy" - An invitation to join us for a Retreat Day at Dalby on 22nd July at 9.30am for a 10 am start – finishing by 4.30pm. Based around the peace and inner stillness of the practice of meditation, the reflections will be exploring our personal experience of joy and how we seek it in our lives (using material by Sarah Bachelard in her reflections on "Risking Delight").

There will be time and space to chill and re-evaluate, for personal reflection, an option for a walk to the Niarbyl or explore a creative activity.

You don't need to have practiced Meditation before to join this retreat. The cost @ £12.50 includes lunch, and refreshments throughout the day.

To help us with catering, please book in advance by contacting Cheryl @ cherylcousins@manx.net and bring cash payments with you on the day. For any further queries or information please contact Cheryl.

Vacancy in See -as you are aware Bishop Peter retires at the end of October. Meanwhile the CofE process to find his successor has commenced and the Vacancy in See Committee has already met twice. At the latest was agreed that we ought to seek the wider thoughts from the diocese and seek responses to three questions:

- What fills you with joy and hope about the ministry and mission of the Church in the Diocese of Sodor and Man?
- What are the challenges and frustrations, and what would you like to change?
- What qualities do you think a bishop should have as we look to the future of our diocese ?

Responses can be sent by email to archdeacon@sodorandman.im
