CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition, they are available at the back of the Cathedral.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know.

Because of the ongoing Covid infection, and your safety, we have taken the decision to please ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Prayer Two people will be available in the south transept to pray with anyone who would like private prayer for themselves or friends after the service.

Refreshments will be served after the service in the servery area

The Toilet and baby changing facilities are located through the door in the Servery.

Collect

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth, and all who are in authority under her; that they may order all things in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace, to the honour and glory of your name and the good of your Church and people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

Go before us, Lord, in all we do with your most gracious favour, and guide us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally by your mercy receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Isaiah 6: 1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.

And one called to another and said:

‘Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.’ The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: ‘Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!’

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: ‘Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.’ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I; send me!’

A reading from the Gospel of Luke 5: 1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, ‘Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.’ Simon answered, ‘Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.’ When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, ‘Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!’ For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then

Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

NOTICES:

Fairtrade

Sorry, we won't have a Fairtrade stall in church for a couple of months. If you would like something from Fairtrade, please see Helen Parry after a service.

Fairtrade Fortnight 21st Feb – 6th March

During this fortnight in Douglas the Fairtrade Group are planning a Train of Shops and Café's that use and sell Fairtrade products in the form of a Treasure Hunt. More details www.fairtrade.org.uk

Living in Love and Faith

A 5 week course designed to help us listen, understand, and engage with issues of identity, relationships and human sexuality. Starting on February 8th at St John's Mill. Contact Canon Janice Ward for further details (Janice.ward@sodorandman.im)

Pahar Trust Nepal

On Sunday February 6th there will be an opportunity to donate to the Pahar Trust Nepal. This charity, based in Nepal, provides local students with a safe and pleasant environment to study. Sebastien, from the choir, and some of his fellow 6th formers are working with the charity this year to raise awareness and funds.

At the 10.30am service there will be a retiring collection plate and also the opportunity to give by card. At Evensong 3.30pm the full collection will be donated. If you wish to give via BACs please use the usual details: St Germans Cathedral, 559107, 18473466 reference Pahar Trust.

We are delighted to be able to help Sebastien and his friends in their efforts to raise awareness and funds for this very worthwhile charity. Please give generously as we help our young people to support fellow students.

Afghanistan appeal

Finance has sent a cheque to the DEC Afghanistan Appeal for £395. Thank you for your donations.

Island Spirituality Network

The next ISN will be held on Saturday 12 February at St John's Mill, 10.00am - 1.00pm.

The theme will be "Spirituality and Creation" led by Graham & Jenny McAll. We shall explore together the physical world's own spirituality, how our spirituality relates to nature and how our view of the future affects creation.

Marmalade for sale in the Cathedral on Sunday

This is not any marmalade but marmalade handcrafted by the Dean using oranges left over from the Crib and Christingle Service in December and using a variety of sugars and a bit of water. Marmalade to suit all tastes. Suggested donation £3 per jar, proceeds towards reordering of the Cathedral.

Cathedral Foodbank

The Cathedral foodbank boxes are pretty empty at the moment and are being used regularly. We are accepting donations on non-perishables for the boxes.
