CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man in the Corrin Hall

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition please ask the welcomers.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar.

Distribution of Communion: Congregants are advised to receive the host first from the President and then move to the right of the President to receive the wine. The Welcomers will bring people up row by row and if you wish to stay seated in your place, we will come to you at the end of communion. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book.

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know. Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to please ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet facilities are at the left hand side of the Corrin Hall stage and aside the Song School as indicated.

Harvest gifts for the foodbank are welcome to be presented at all the services.

Collect

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season: grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints forever. Amen.

A reading from Deuteronomy 8: 17-18

Do not say to yourself, 'My power and the might of my own hand have gained me this wealth.' But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

A reading from 2 Corinthians 9: 6-15

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, 'He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever.' He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

HYMN- 'Cauliflowers fluffy'

Cauliflowers fluffy and cabbages green,
Strawberries sweeter than any I've seen.

Beetroot purple and onions white,
All grow steadily day and night.

*The apples are ripe, the plums are red,
The broad beans are sleeping in a
blankety bed.*

Blackberries are juicy and rhubarb
sour,
Marrows fatt'ning, hour by hour.
Gooseberries hairy and lettuces fat.
Radishes round and runner beans flat.

*The apples are ripe, the plums are red,
The broad beans are sleeping in a
blankety bed.*

Orangy carrots and turnips cream,
Reddening tomatoes that used to be green.
Brown potatoes in little heaps, down in the darkness where the celery sleeps!

*The apples are ripe, the plums are red,
The broad beans are sleeping in a
blankety bed.*

A reading from the Gospel of Luke

12: 16-30

Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry." But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

He said to his disciples, 'Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.'

Notices:

Caterpillar Club resumes on the first and third Wednesdays of each week.

Mothers' Union

To kick off MU Prison Week (A week of Prayer). We have a Representative of Motiv8. A group who help people with substance addiction, in and out of Prison, to talk about their work on this Island. We will be meeting at the Deanery 7.30pm on Monday 9th October. Please do come along for this special meeting.

Cathedral Choristers' treats:

Often at the end of Chorister rehearsals, the children are offered a couple of sweet treats after their prayers, -if anyone would like to help the music department costs by regularly donating packets of Haribo sweets or other chewable sweets, please speak to Dr Litman.

Congratulations

to our Director of Music, Dr Peter Litman on being appointed the Diocesan Education Officer by the Bishop. This additional role is voluntary, but important for the vision of the wider diocese and education. More details can be seen on the Diocesan website in the news section.

From Revd Ruth Walker:

Thank you to everyone for much kindness and support throughout all of my curacy (and before!) but especially last Sunday; for gifts, cards and messages, food for sharing, food for thought, music with special meaning, and for the very helpful Intercessions and closing liturgy with anointing...through the tears there was much joy, honestly! Ruth x.

Bishop Peter's Farewell Gift

For those who wish to contribute to the Diocesan Gift for Bishop Peter, please provide you monetary gift in a marked envelope 'Bishop's Gift' and either pass directly to the Finance department, leave in the Sunday collection or post in the White box after the service. All collected gifts will then be passed to the Diocesan Treasurer.
