CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition, they are available at the back of the Cathedral.

Communion. If you are a practising Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know.

Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to please ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Prayer Two people will be available in the south transept to pray with anyone who would like private prayer for themselves or friends after the service.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet and baby changing facilities are located through the door in the Servedy.

Children's activities are available throughout the service at the back.

Collect

ALMIGHTY God, whose servant German, disciple of Patrick and first Bishop of this Isle, carried the good news of your Son to our shores: grant that we who commemorate the founding of the Church in Man, and who give thanks for our city of Peel may know the hope of the gospel in our hearts and manifest its light in all our ways; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Post Communion

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Ezekiel 3 v 16-21

At the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me: Mortal, I have made you a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. If I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die', and you give them no warning, and do not speak to warn the wicked from their wicked way, in order to save their life, those wicked persons shall die for their iniquity; but their blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked, and they do not turn from their wickedness, or from their wicked way, they shall die for their iniquity; but you will have saved your life. Again, if the righteous turn from their righteousness and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before them, they shall die; because you have not warned them, they shall die for their sin, and their righteous deeds that they have done shall not be remembered; but their blood I will require at your hand. If, however, you warn the righteous not to sin, and they do not sin, they shall surely live, because they took warning; and you will have saved your life.

A reading from 2 Corinthians 5 v 14-20

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

A reading from the Gospel of John 21: 15-17

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'

Caterpillar Club

The Caterpillar club meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month at 10.00am.

“Journeying to Joy” - An invitation to join us for a Retreat Day at Dalby on 22nd July at 9.30am for a 10 am start – finishing by 4.30pm. Based around the peace and inner stillness of the practice of meditation, the reflections will be exploring our personal experience of joy and how we seek it in our lives (using material by Sarah Bachelard in her reflections on “Risking Delight”).

There will be time and space to chill and re-evaluate, for personal reflection, an option for a walk to the Niarbyl or explore a creative activity.

You don't need to have practiced Meditation before to join this retreat. The cost @ £12.50 includes lunch, and refreshments throughout the day.

To help us with catering, please book in advance by contacting Cheryl @ cherylcousins@manx.net and bring cash payments with you on the day. For any further queries or information please contact Cheryl.

Vacancy in See -as you are aware Bishop Peter retires at the end of October. Meanwhile the CofE process to find his successor has commenced and the Vacancy in See Committee has already met twice. At the latest was agreed that we ought to seek the wider thoughts from the diocese and seek responses to three questions:

- What fills you with joy and hope about the ministry and mission of the Church in the Diocese of Sodor and Man?
- What are the challenges and frustrations, and what would you like to change?
- What qualities do you think a bishop should have as we look to the future of our diocese?

Responses can be sent by email to archdeacon@sodorandman.im

Peel Secret Gardens Saturday and Sunday 15 & 16 July

The Deanery and Cathedral Gardens are part of this. We will be serving refreshments on both days at the Deanery 11am to 4pm on Saturday and 1pm to 4pm on Sunday. Offers of help gratefully received – eg help with refreshments for an hour, provision of cakes (ingredients must be supplied) and to look after items in Corrin Hall or on Deanery forecourt for the 'Big Sale' on the Sunday please speak to Helen Parry or Val Garret

We have brochures for sale in the office @£5 each – the brochure gives access to all the gardens involved.
