CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition please ask the welcomers.

Communion. If you are a practicing Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar.

Distribution of Communion: Congregants are advised to receive the host first from the President and then move to receive the chalice. The Welcomers will bring people up section by section and if you wish to stay seated in your place, we will come to you at the end of communion. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book.

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know. Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet facilities are through the Servery.

Collect

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you that in this wonderful sacrament you have given us the memorial of your passion: grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of your body and blood that we may know within ourselves and show forth in our lives the fruits of your redemption; for you are alive and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen

Genesis 14: 18 – 20..

And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. He blessed him and said,

‘Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
maker of heaven and earth;
and blessed be God Most High,
who has delivered your enemies
into your hand!’

John 6: 51 – 58.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.’

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, ‘How can this man give us his flesh to eat?’ So Jesus said to them, ‘Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.’

Notices:

Tuesday 24th June at 11.00am - The Funeral Service for Andrew Hillas. At Cathedral, Isle of Man, Derby Road, Peel, immediately following the service Bishop Tricia and the family would love you to join them for a light lunch in the Corrin Hall and would look forward to seeing you there.

If you are unable to attend we are glad to have the option of a live stream and you can access this through this link :

https://youtube.com/live/w8wyzC9ul_Y?feature=share

Donations On the day it will be family flowers only. A retiring collection at the service will be split between the Cathedral and the Isle of Man Children’s Centre. We will send out further details of how to give electronically to a specific project at the Children’s Centre if you will be joining us online. Both the Cathedral and the Isle of Man Children’s Centre were places Andrew was building his engagement with and represent important areas of faith and justice which were so important to him

URGENT HELP NEEDED!! by Scripture Union Volunteers for Life Path: Can you help ?? Do you or someone you know have time to help us? We are not after particular skills other than a few people to be on hand to direct children & teachers with a warm, welcoming, and smiling face. The gaps are on Thursday 26th June and Monday 30th June from 9:30AM - 2:30PM. For anyone that doesn't know, this will all be at Rushen Abbey, Ballasalla. If you want to help us, but can't do the above dates then any of our Lifepath days can always do with more helpers - Wednesday 25th - Wednesday 2nd July (excluding Saturday and Sunday). To meet our safeguarding requirements all volunteers (whatever event they support) need to have completed an application form. Please contact Sarah at lifepath@sumt.im to find out more. Thank you!!

We celebrate with the Big Table Team.

Big Table Team - Winners of the first Newgate Cathedrals Volunteer Award and Rosemary Clarke one of the Runners up in the individual volunteer category will have their awards presented on 11th August

Prayer Ministry

We offer a ministry of Prayer after every 10.30am Eucharist, if you would like more details, please speak to Mary Biggart

Home Visits

We already visit a number of people to bring home communion, if there is anyone else that would appreciate this, please contact Revd Mark – 338738

Bishops of Man and the Isles

The Names on the Cathedral Floor

Thomas de Rossey A.D. 1333. A Scotchman, in whose time the Island was conquered from the Scotch by the English, and was the last bishop appointed by the Scotch. He was the first that exacted twenty shillings for visitation dues, likewise the tenths of all aliens. He sat bishop fourteen years, and died on the 21st September 1348, and was buried at the Abbey of Scone in Scotland, while on a visit to Scotland.

FOR YOUR DIARY:

Friday 27th June - Sing Joyfully. An evening of sacred Music. The Choir of St Peter's College, Oxford is giving a short concert at 5.30 pm in The Chapel of St Thomas, King William's College. All welcome. Admission is free. On Sunday 29th they will Choral Evensong at the Cathedral at 3pm – note Saturday 5th July – 7.00pm. Quiz & Supper for Christian Aid. Teams of 4. Pasty and beans or mushy peas and Pud. £10.00 Also a Raffle. Please sign the sheet at the back of the Cathedral.

Sunday 6th July. 6.00pm – 7.30pm. Faith in the North. The Archbishop is visiting the Island for Tynwald Day and holding an event on Sunday 6th July at the Cathedral. To celebrate this, the Diocese is working with Manx Radio to recruit people who represent the different languages spoken on the Island, to take part by recording them reading the prayer in their own language, with the opportunity for them to tell of any particular significance it has for them. If you know of anyone who speaks other languages, particularly as their mother tongue, who may be willing to take part in this, please ask them to contact Rosemary Clarke with their e-mail addresses and phone number. Rosemary's looking for: The Name of language spoken, and the country of their heritage where it is spoken (eg the language might be Spanish but they might come from Nicaragua). Their name. A photo of them (this could be one they have already, or a photo can be taken of them.) The intention is to put up an exhibition in the Cathedral and to have at least one printed copy to give to the Archbishop. The exhibition will also be available on the Cathedral's website. – If you can help please contact Rosemary Clarke at: education@cathedral.im Many thanks.
