CATHEDRAL
ISLE OF MAN

Welcome to Cathedral Isle of Man

If you need a large-print hymn book or music edition please ask the welcomers.

Communion. If you are a practicing Christian of any denomination, and normally receive Communion in your home church, you are welcome to receive at the Lord's Altar.

Distribution of Communion: Congregants are advised to receive the host first from the President and then move to receive the chalice. The Welcomers will bring people up section by section and if you wish to stay seated in your place, we will come to you at the end of communion. If you do not wish to receive you are welcome to come for a blessing – indicating by holding your service book.

If you require a gluten-free wafer, or would like to receive communion seated, do let one of the stewards know. Because of cross contamination (for someone who is gluten free) we have taken the decision to ask that you refrain from Intinction (dipping) of the host into the chalice.

Refreshments will be served today after the service.

The Toilet facilities are through the Servedy.

Collect

Almighty God, whose blessed apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their death as in their life; grant that your Church, inspired by their teaching and example, and made one by your Spirit, may ever stand firm upon the one foundation, Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen

Post Communion

Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the gospel: by the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Acts 12: 1 – 11.

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.) When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. ⁵ While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him.

The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, 'Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.' He did so. Then he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.' Peter^d went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

Matthew 16: 13 – 19.

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.'

Our questions about Gaza: Palestinian Journalist & Filmmaker Yousef Alhelou, visited the Island last week at the invitation of Amnesty International: If you'd like to hear him being interviewed by Sadie Gilbert of Manx radio please follow This Link

..<https://www.iomtoday.co.im/news/theyre-starving-filmmakers-harrowing-account-of-suffering-in-gaza-during-island-visit-804084>. She asks all the questions that ordinary people want to know - and Yousef's measured responses are, as always, informative, insightful and full of passion for his people and his homeland.

Natasha McKenzie who is from the Isle of Man and has worked for Manx Care for the past three years is joining UK-Med in Gaza, as the Operations Coordinator. Very few humanitarian representatives remain on the ground in Gaza due to access challenges and the level of risk. Tasha writes :, UK-Med is delivering frontline trauma care and running two field hospitals, having treated over 500,000 people so far. If you're looking to support an active medical response, donations are deeply appreciated <https://www.uk-med.org>

Prayer Ministry

We offer a ministry of Prayer after every 10.30am Eucharist, if you would like more details, please speak to Mary Biggart

Home Visits

We already visit a number of people to bring home communion, if there is anyone else that would appreciate this, please contact Revd Mark – 338738

Bishops of Man and the Isles

The Names on the Cathedral Floor

William Russell A.D. 1348. A Manxman, Abbot of Rushen, was elected by the clergy of Man in St. Germans Cathedral, in Peel Castle. He was consecrated by Bertrand de Poyet. the Cardinal Bishop of Ostia, about May 1349, and not, as is stated in the Chronicle, by Pope Clement VI. He was the first Sodor bishop confirmed by the Apostolic See, former bishops being confirmed by the Archbishops of Drontheim. He held a synod at Kirk Michael in 1350, at which five canons were enacted. He founded, A.D. 1373, at Bemachen, in Arbory, a house of minor friars. He died 21st April 1374, at Ramshead, in Lancashire, and was buried in the Abbey of Furness. He was Abbot of Rushen eighteen years, and bishop twenty-six years.

FOR YOUR DIARY:

Sunday 6th July. 6.00pm – 7.30pm. Faith in the North. The Archbishop is visiting the Island for Tynwald Day and holding an event on Sunday 6th July at the Cathedral. To celebrate this, the Diocese is working with Manx Radio to recruit people who represent the different languages spoken on the Island, to take part by recording them reading the prayer in their own language, with the opportunity for them to tell of any particular significance it has for them. If you know of anyone who speaks other languages, particularly as their mother tongue, who may be willing to take part in this, please ask them to contact Rosemary Clarke with their e-mail addresses and phone number. Rosemary's looking for: The Name of language spoken, and the country of their heritage where it is spoken (eg the language might be Spanish but they might come from Nicaragua). Their name. A photo of them (this could be one they have already, or a photo can be taken of them.) The intention is to put up an exhibition in the Cathedral and to have at least one printed copy to give to the Archbishop. The exhibition will also be available on the Cathedral's website. – If you can help please contact Rosemary Clarke at: eduation@cathedral.im Many thanks.

Monday 7th July – 12 Noon – 4.30pm: Tynwald Day Lunches & Teas at Dalby school rooms: Home cooking & Manx Fayre, Manx Broth, Bonnag and Soda cake, sandwiches, Cakes Coffee & Afternoon Teas. everyone welcome. There'll be seating in the garden if the weather is fine. Hope you can join us.

Monday 21st July - 8.00pm - 9.00pm. Join the Alpha UK team at St Johns Mill Who's it for? This event is open to everyone and ideal for whole teams. So whether you're an experienced Alpha or church leader, want to run an Alpha course in your church or maybe you'd like to know more about what makes a great Alpha experience - this is for you! To book your free place -- Follow the link <https://bit.ly/4mYPpEb> Doors will open at 6:45pm and light refreshments will be provided. Please contact marie.aitken@alpha.org if you have any specific allergy of dietary requirements.

Change of Date: Revd. Ian Quayle's ordination to the priesthood 20th July at St George's Congratulations: Big Table Café won the Newgate Volunteer Team of the year Award at Cathedrals. This will be presented on 11th August. Rosemary Clarke was a Runner-up in the individual volunteer category.
